

---

THE BAR OF MONTREAL AND JURIS CONCEPT ARE CONTINUING THEIR PARTNERSHIP!

---

For immediate release

MONTREAL, June 8, 2015 – The Bar of Montreal and Juris Concept are proud to announce the release of an English version of JurisRéférence to better serve the English-Speaking Community.

Having enjoyed success with the French-Speaking users and following the increase in volume of use of its service by the English-Speaking Community, Juris Concept, in collaboration with the Bar of Montreal, is releasing the English version of JurisRéférence. These two companies pursue their common mission of facilitating the access to legal resources for all citizens.

Moreover, thanks to the collaboration of the Barreau du Québec, the citizen who wishes to settle a dispute without going to court will now be able to use JurisRéférence to find a lawyer-mediator online, whether in civil and commercial matters, family law or small claims, this new service is also available in both languages.

With more than 14 000 lawyers, the Bar of Montreal, founded in 1849, promotes the protection of the public through information and awareness activities and by an active participation in the administration of justice. Further information at www.barreaudemontreal.qc.ca.

– 30 –

SOURCE :

Gislaine Dufault, directrice des communications
Barreau de Montréal
Téléphone : (514) 866-9392, poste 224
gdufault@barreaudemontreal.qc.ca