

VISEZ DROIT

REFERRAL SERVICE

This service facilitates the search for legal help in that it allows citizens to get in touch with a lawyer who practices in the area concerned by the request. The price of the first 60-minute consultation with the lawyer identified by the Service is $60 (plus taxes where applicable). If additional legal services are needed, the client will have to agree with the lawyer on their scope and their fees.

By telephone (Monday to Friday, 9 A.M. to 4 P.M.):

LEGAL DUTY COUNSEL SERVICE (LDCS)

Offered only to those who have been referred by the Court, the LDCS provides one-time assistance to litigants who are not represented by a lawyer. The free information session focuses on basic legal information in family matters. The duration of the information session is limited to a maximum of 30 minute.

Available on Court referral only.

SERVICE IN PREPARATION FOR A HEARING

This free service helps prepare your case and become familiar with the conduct of a hearing at the Small Claims Court, at the Tribunal administratif du travail, at the Régie du logement, or the Tribunal administratif du Québec (dispute to a decision rendered by the CNESST in matters of Crime Victims Compensation).

Available only by appointment and for parties who have already received a notice of hearing.

JURISRÉFÉRENCE

Online tool to help you find a lawyer or a mediator

This Referral Service gives you access to lawyers near you whose experience covers all areas of law.

To resolve a conflict whether in family, civil or commercial, it is not always necessary to have recourse to the courts. Get a reference for a lawyer-mediator!

Telephone legal assistance

This service gives you access, in a timely manner and at a preferential rate, to legal services through a phone call with a lawyer for any field of law.

Small Claims assistance plans

This service will provide you with lawyers who will help you to be aware of your rights and prepare your case for the Small Claims Court.

PRO BONO LEGAL INFORMATION SERVICE AT THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF MONTREAL (LIS)

Offered only to those who have been referred by the Court, the LIS offers assistance to accused not represented by an attorney before the municipal court of Montreal in criminal and penal matters having significant legal consequences (i. e. failure to stop at the scene of an accident, excessive speeding offenses, pursuant the Quebec Highway Safety Act).

The information session lasts a maximum of 30 minutes and is limited to basic legal information provided by the attorney who is on duty.

Available on Court referral only.

LIMITED SCOPE SERVICES

Limited scope services offer access to a lawyer for one aspect of the case (review of documents already drafted, preparation of a motion, assistance in completing the appropriate forms, help in preparing a case or representation during the trial).

Ask your lawyer for more information.
