

Trial Practice Do's & Don'ts 17th edition: "Objections: When To? How To?"

Date: November 5, 2025, 16h30 - 18h30

Location: Montréal Court House, 10, Saint-Antoine Street East, Salle Jules-Deschênes (Room 5.15)

In collaboration with the Bar of Montréal, the Association of English Speaking Lawyers of Québec/ Association des Avocats Anglophones de Québec (formerly known as the English-Speaking Section of The Bar of Montréal).

Mandatory continuing education credits will be provided for 2 hours.

Mastering objections is a cornerstone of effective trial advocacy. Knowing when and how to properly raise and respond to them ultimately empowers the litigator to better protect his or her client and shape trial outcomes.

In what promises to be a most informative and instructive program, the Conference will feature a panel of 4 distinguished jurists: Me Sophie Melchers, Me Sandra Mastrogiuseppe, , Me Jillian Levine, and the Honourable Janet Michelin, j.c.s., Me Harry Dikranian, a Past Chair of the English-Speaking Section of the Bar of Montréal, will moderate the conference.

A panel exchange will follow the presentations and a question and answer period will conclude the program. A cocktail will follow the Conference.

Price:

Member of the Association of English-Speaking Lawyers of Québec $0 CAD.

Non-Member : $125 CAD. Register by E-transfer to the following email address:

eslq25@gmail.com

For Further Information :

Email: eslq25@gmail.com

Me Calin Popovici

Chair of the Association of English-Speaking Lawyers of Québec